DETAILED ACTION

Double Patenting

1. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the “right to exclude” granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claim 1 is rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1 and 4 of U.S. Patent No. 7269237. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because claims 1 and 4 of U.S. patent No. 7269237 are a broader version of claim 1 of the present application.

Claim 1 includes all the limitations of claims 1 and 4 of U.S. patent No. 7269237 as follows: a noise cancel circuit comprising an LPF for blocking a sub-signal and a pilot in a high frequency band of the input audio signal and passing only a main signal of the input audio signal; an interpolation circuit for interpolation processing on the main signal output from the LPF, a noise detection circuit for detecting the noise portion of said input audio signal.

However, claim 1 of the present application also includes a timer for starting, counting in response to an output signal from the noise detection circuit and generating a switching signal during a predetermined period of time while counting is performed; and a selection circuit for selecting one of output signals from a circuit and the interpolation circuit in accordance with the switching signal, thereby serving to replace the noise portion of said input audio signal with an output signal from said interpolation circuit according to the output signal from said noise detection circuit and outputting a signal subjected to interpolation processing in its noise portion without adding high frequency components removed from the input audio signal.

Nonetheless the removal of said limitation from claim 1 of the present application made claims 1 and 4 of U.S. patent No. 7269237 a broader version of claim 1 of the present application. Therefore, since omission of an element and its function in a combination is an obvious expedient if the remaining elements perform the same function as before (In re Karlson

(CCPA) 136 USPQ 184 (1963) claim 1 is not patentably from claims 1 and 4 of U.S. patent No. 7269237.
